

The Course Outcome of the eight departments of the college can be presented in the following ways:

Assamese:

After passing out with Major in Assamese, students can opt for Post Graduate in literature, Linguistics, Culture Studies, Mass Communication and Tourism. They can engage themselves as teachers and also as entrepreneurs in different fields.

Economics:

This course has been developed to prepare students for career as professionals, academicians or researchers in the field of Economics. The students can go pursuing masters in Economics, Business Economics, and Master of Business Administration etc. The Students can opt Economics as an optional subject in various competitive examinations viz., Civil services, Indian Economic Service. This course further enables the learners to prepare for Banking sector and also start own business enterprises with the help of the economic ideas garnered during the study.

History:

On completion of the BA (History) special, students will be able to Understand the basic as well as the emerging trends, concepts and themes in history. Students could acquaint with range of issues related to the history of Assam and India. The semester course programs help them to think and argue historically and critically in writing and discussion making. This course prepares students for higher studies in History, Archaeology, Culture Studies, Mass Communication etc. It could also help student to apply for jobs in colleges, schools, department of museology, archeology and other avenues. Besides the history students have advantage in all competitive examination.

Education:

The course prepares students for higher studies in Education and Psychology. It equips students for various avenues like research, teaching, competitive examinations, jobs in DIET, D.led, B,Ed etc.

English:

The course will enable students to acquire sound comprehension of social, cultural, biographical, historical background of British and other European literature, American literature, Indian Writing in English. As the course is basically multi-disciplinary, the students have a lot of career-options – teaching, News Media, Communication Media, Tourism Industry, as Air Hostess etc. They can opt for further studies in English, Linguistics, Culture Studies, Folklore, MBA, Mass Communication, Tourism, Law etc.

Sociology:

The course will enable students to acquire the knowledge on different types of societies, their change and development, problems and prospects and many more. Students are also having opportunity to gain practical knowledge through the field-based studies conducted by the department. It is helpful for future studies like pursuing P.G. in Sociology, Cultural Studies, Folklore, Tribal Studies, Mass-communication, Social work, Women's Studies. Law, MBA

Principal
Jorhat College (Amal)
JORHAT

etc. It encourages students to appear in different competitive examinations conducted by governmental, semi-government or Non-government agencies. As they are having knowledge in research methodology, knowledge on data collection and data analysis they have opportunity to get employment opportunity in such data related works also.

Political Science:

The course prepares students for pursuing higher education in Political Science. It orients students towards national and state level competitive examinations like APSC, UPSC, etc. Many students also pursue courses in Law.

Philosophy:

The course develops introspective thinking and analytical abilities of the students. At the end of the course students can opt for higher studies in Philosophy. Further, Philosophy is a very popular subject in Civil Services examination.

Sardesh Prasad
Principal
Jorhat College (Amal.)
JORHAT