

Program Outcome, Program Specific Outcome and Course Outcome

Assamese

Program Outcome: Under Graduate course in Assamese Major deals with linguistics and the history of Assamese literature. It incorporates Assamese literature from the 9th to the 21st century and also includes Western and Eastern Literature and Cultural History. The cultural history paper includes various aspects like tourism, archaeology, agriculture and fashion. This paper requires the students to acquire knowledge on indigenous dress and ornaments. It also encompasses information on various religious and historical places of interest and archaeology. Variety and scope of agriculture is another area that it covers.

Program Specific Outcome: After completion of this course students will gain information on the Assamese culture and tradition. The course will provide skills in creative writing. Competence in the language will empower them with communicative skills.

Course Outcome: After passing out with Major in Assamese students can opt for Post Graduate in literature, Linguistics, Culture Studies, Mass Communication and Tourism. They can engage themselves as teachers and also as entrepreneurs in agriculture.

Economics

Jorhat college is presently running simultaneously both the Semester and the newly inducted CBCS system. The college provides both major/core and pass course/ generic programs in Economics.

Program Outcome: Three year Under Graduate course in Economics (Major) covers Micro Economics, Macro Economics, Mathematical Economics, Econometrics, International Economics, Statistical Methods, Development Economics, Economics of Health and Education, Game Theory, Monetary Economics, Public Economics, Money and Financial Markets, Financial Economics, The Economy of North-East India, History of Economics thought and Indian Economics to develop knowledge about prospects of growth.

Program Specific outcome: The course would enable the learners to take cognizance of the real economic phenomena. The learners would also be able to understand and appreciate the economic issues and news in the new globalised business environment.

Course Outcome: This course has been developed to prepare students for career as professionals, academicians or researchers in the field of Economics. The students can go pursuing masters in Economics, Business Economics, and Master of Business Administration etc. The Students can opt Economics as an optional subject in various competitive examinations viz., Civil services, Indian Economic Service. This course further enables the learners to prepare for Banking sector and also start own business enterprises with the help of the economic ideas garnered during the study.

History

Program Outcome: The Under Graduate course in History Major comprises of Ancient, Medieval and Modern Indian history, which can be further categorized into History of Science and Technology, Historiography, Sultanate period, Mughal period, India under the East India Company, Indian Freedom Movement. The newly introduced CBCS includes courses on socio-cultural history of ancient and medieval world, museology, oral history etc. To give the students an insight into the regional history the course includes the history of Assam of different periods.

Program Specific Outcome: The course in essence tries to teach students to link the past with the present. E.H.Carr defined History as “an unending dialogue between the past and the present”. Keeping this in mind the course deals with past events as a continuous, systematic narrative of the past events as relating to a particular people, country, period, persons, etc., written as a chronological account and relating to the present.

Course Outcome: On completion of the BA (History) special, students will be able to Understand the basic as well as the emerging trends, concepts and themes in history. Students could acquaint with range of issues related to the history of Assam and India. The semester course programs help them to think and argue historically and critically in writing and discussion making . This course prepares students for higher studies in History, Archaeology, Culture Studies, Mass Communication etc;. It could also helps student to apply for jobs in colleges, schools, department of museology, archeology and other avenues. Besides the history students have advantage in all competitive examination.

Education

Program Outcome: The Under Graduate program in Education Major helps the students to understand the meaning, aims, function and role of Education. The course explains the basics as well as emerging trends, concepts of Indian and Western schools of Philosophy and their impact on Education. It discusses the ideologies and contributions of great educators around the world . The course also involves understanding the meaning and different perspectives of Sociological , Psychological, technological foundations of Education and different theories of intelligence, teaching practices , measurement and evaluation in Education. The recommendations of the different Education Commissions are also included in the course.

Program Specific Outcome: Micro- teaching, preparing lesson- plans, practice teaching in schools which are integral parts of the syllabus will train the students in teaching skills. Students will also gain a reasonable knowledge in psychology.

Course Outcome: The course prepares students for higher studies in Education and Psychology. It equips students for various avenues like research, teaching, competitive examinations, jobs in DIET, Dled, B,Ed etc.

English

Program Outcome: The Under Graduate in English Major deals mostly with English literature and its history. The course also includes Women's Writing, Nature Writing, Literary Theory and Criticism, Linguistics, Film Studies, American Literature. It makes the students familiar with different literary genres – fiction, non-fiction, poetry, plays, biography, autobiography, journal, film, plays, etc.

Program Specific Outcome: The course familiarizes students with the main events, conflicts and inventions of Great Britain, to comprehend literary texts written by great writers of English from the ancient to the modern times. It enables them to apply critical frameworks to analyze linguistic, cultural and historical background of texts written in English and also makes them sensitive and aware of social issues. Knowledge in grammar and usage and linguistic structure of the English language will develop the communicative skills of the students.

Course Outcome: The course will enable students to acquire sound comprehension of social, cultural, biographical, historical background of British and other European literature, American literature, Indian Writing in English. As the course is basically multi-disciplinary the students have a lot of career-options – teaching, News Media, Communication Media, Tourism Industry, as Air Hostess etc. They can opt for further studies in English, Linguistics, Culture Studies, Folklore, MBA, Mass Communication, Tourism, Law etc.

SOCIOLOGY

Programme Outcome, Programme Specific Outcome and Course Outcome

Programme Outcome: The Under Graduate in Sociology, Major deals mostly with introduction to sociology, Indian Social system, social research methods, social problems, social change and development, sociological theories, science, technology and society, social psychology, mass communication and society, globalization and society, industry and society, society in North-east India, sociology of health and hospital management etc. The newly introduced CBCS Course also includes, introduction to sociology, Sociology of India, political sociology, urban sociology, sociology of religion, sociology of gender, social stratification, economic sociology, sociology of kinship, sociological research methods, sociological theories, agrarian sociology, environmental sociology, sociology of work, sociology of health and medicine, societies in North-East India etc.

Programme Specific Outcome: The course aims at acquainting the students with a number of sociological aspects. It helps students to understand sociology, its background of emergence as a discipline in the west and India, gives an analytical and cognitive approach to acquaint with classical, modern and Indian sociological thinkers, helps to acquaint the students with the conceptual framework of Indian social system, dynamics of Indian social institutions, provides the knowledge of sociological research methods, provides a theoretical and practical knowledge on social change and development, its paths, agencies and hurdles. Through this course students understand the fundamentals and the emergence of various social and social welfare measures from the sociological perspectives. It provides knowledge about the basic understanding of social psychology, sociological understanding and practical knowledge of mass-communication, characteristics, nature, dynamics, problems and prospect of globalization. This course is helpful for the student to understand the meaning and ethos of science, its respectable sibling i.e. technology, its impacts on society, to familiarize with the processes like urbanization, industrialization, modernization, westernization, its impact on society and environment. It also helps in gaining knowledge on North-east India, its ecology, history, society etc., to introduce with the concepts of health, interrelationship between health and society etc.

Course Outcome: The course will enable students to acquire the knowledge on different types of societies, their change and development, problems and prospects and many more. Students are also having opportunity to gain practical knowledge through the field-based studies conducted by the department. It is helpful for future studies like pursuing P.G. in Sociology, Cultural Studies, Folklore, Tribal Studies, Mass-communication, Social work, Women's Studies, Law, MBA etc. It encourages students to appear in different competitive examinations conducted by governmental, semi-government or Non-government agencies. As they are having knowledge in research methodology, knowledge on data collection and data analysis they have opportunity to get employment opportunity in such data related works also.

Political Science

Program Outcome: Political Science Major course has a significant thrust on Indian Constitution, Indian Politics and Government, Public Administration and International Relations. It also requires students to study the constitutions of China, Switzerland, United Kingdoms and America. The course includes Sociology, Women and Politics, Western and Indian Political Thinkers and Human Rights.

Program Specific Outcome: The course familiarizes the students with different approaches to the study of politics and orients them on contemporary political problems and behaviour thus enabling them to formulate a general idea on political phenomena. It also helps them to comprehend the basic structure and processes of government systems.

Course Outcome: The course prepares students for pursuing higher education in Political Science. It orients students towards national and state level competitive examinations like APSC, UPSC, etc. Many students also pursue courses in Law.

Philosophy

Program Outcome: The three year Under Graduate course in Philosophy (Major) initiates students to Greek Philosophy, Indian and Western Philosophy and Ethics, Philosophy of Religion- theory, origin and development, Epistemology and Metaphysics, Social and Political Philosophy and Logic.

Program Specific Outcome: The student is expected to develop a broad understanding of the philosophical concepts. The learner is also expected to develop a fair understanding of the different ideas of the different schools of philosophy and inculcate a rational and logical process of thinking.

Course Outcome: The course develops introspective thinking and analytical abilities of the students. At the end of the course students can opt for higher studies in Philosophy. Further, Philosophy is a very popular subject in Civil Services examination.